Montgomery Bar Association and Court of Common Pleas Hold Annual Memorial Service

Norristown, PA (3/26/07): -- This morning, the Montgomery Bar Association (MBA) and the Montgomery County Court of Common Pleas of Montgomery County held their Annual Memorial Service from 9:30 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. at the Montgomery County Courthouse in Courtroom "A". The service honored those members of the MBA who have passed away during the 2006 calendar year: Francis T. Dennis, Jr., Esq.; Ronald J. Psaris, Esq.; Roger B. Reynolds, Jr., Esq.; John F. Solomon, Jr., Esq.; Cornelius G. Sullivan, Esq.; and Parke H. Ulrich, Esq.

All members of the MBA, family and friends of the deceased, and members of the community were invited to attend. President Judge Richard J. Hodgson presided over the service and the full Bench was in attendance. The service included an introduction by the President of the Montgomery Bar Association, Robert E. Slota, Jr., Esq., and a Memorial Minute for each of the honorees. Immediately following the service was light refreshment outside of Courtroom "A".

About the Montgomery Bar Association

Established in 1885 to professionalize the county's practice of law, the Montgomery Bar Association (MBA) is one of our nation's oldest and most respected bar associations, representing over 2,000 legal professionals in Montgomery County. Now, as then, the MBA exists to uphold legal and ethical standards in our legal community. As the 3^d largest Bar in Pennsylvania, the MBA has a longstanding tradition of service to its membership and the community. For members, the MBA offers an important arena for networking, professional development and education. For the community, the MBA serves as a legal resource offering education, legal assistance and funds and resources for agencies in need. The Association is actively engaged in public service through community outreach, free educational events offered throughout the year, programs like the Montgomery Child Advocacy Project, the Mock Trial Competitions for high-school students, and more.
