MBA ANNOUNCES 2008 LAW DAY ESSAY CONTEST

Norristown, PA – The Young Lawyers Section of the Montgomery Bar Association is sponsoring the 2008 Law Day Essay Contest, a contest that encourages high school students to write an essay based on a law-related topic. This year's topic is "Growing Strong Citizens." The top three winners of the contest will receive cash prizes and will be announced at the annual Law Day celebration on May 2, 2008 at the Montgomery County Courthouse.

Essays must be 1000 words or less, double-spaced, and should include the student's name, address, phone number, and school at the top of the page. All essays are due by April 25, 2008 to Elizabeth L. Lippy, Esq., Rubin, Glickman, Steinberg & Gifford, 2605 N. Broad Street, P.O. Box 1277, Lansdale, PA 19446-0726.

About the Montgomery Bar Association

Established in 1885 to professionalize the county's practice of law, the Montgomery Bar Association (MBA) is one of our nation's oldest and most respected bar associations, representing over 2,100 legal professionals in Montgomery County, Pennsylvania. Now, as then, the MBA exists to uphold legal and ethical standards in our legal community. As the 3rd largest Bar in Pennsylvania, the MBA has a longstanding tradition of service to its membership and the community. For members, the MBA offers an important arena for networking, professional development and education. For the community, the MBA serves as a legal resource offering education, legal assistance and funds and resources for individuals and agencies in need. The Association is actively engaged in public service through community outreach, free educational events offered throughout the year, programs like the Montgomery Child Advocacy Project, the Mock Trial Competitions for high-school students, and more.
